Index

Variable Names in the CSV dataset file, plus the additional prefix A, refer to the numbering in the codebook. For example, A3.1 refers to item 3.1 in the codebook.

Variable Labels indicate the readable description of each variable and are only included in the codebook. For example, Gender indicates item 3.1.

Value Labels indicate the labels for each value chosen by the respondents. For example, for Gender the labels were as follows (1=male, 2=female, 3=other).

Reversed Items are indicated with an asterisk * in the codebook and CSV dataset file.

Intro Items (2.1, 4.1, 8.1, 19.1, 26.1, 28.1, 30.1, 33.1, 35.1, 37.1, 39.1) are meant to introduce respondents to a series of questions or a specific topic, in addition to the informed consent (1.1).

Attention-Check Item 18.1 indicated an attention-check and does not require any coding.

Country The countries of the collected data are indicated here (1=Germany, 2=Spain, 3=Netherlands, 4= United Kingdom).

RespondentID Consecutive numbers were assigned to all valid respondents (N=2031).

Informed Consent

1.1. Dear participant, thank you for taking part in our survey. Before you begin, please make sure you read the following information:

Purpose of the investigation
This survey is about the effects of the Coronavirus on your attitudes, feelings and behavior. The questionnaire presented below investigates how you think about yourself, your country, your prospects, and your government. There are no right or wrong answers. This is about your ideas, thoughts and feelings. In total, this questionnaire will take about 15 minutes to complete.

Voluntary participation
There are no consequences if you decide not to participate in this study. You may withdraw your consent to allow the researchers to use your answers and data within seven days following your participation. If you choose to withdraw from the study, your data will be deleted permanently.

Your privacy is guaranteed
Your personal information (about who you are) is entirely confidential and will not be shared without your explicit consent. The data will be anonymized to make sure that no one can trace your data back to you personally (following the EU’s General Data Protection Regulation GDPR). Only data which has been completely anonymized may be shared among researchers.
I consent to the following:
- I am 18 year or older.
- I have read and understood the information above.
- I consent to participate in this study.
- I consent to allow the researchers of this study to use my anonymized data, and to share them with other researchers interested in the topic.
- I understand that I can withdraw this consent at any time.

- Yes, I hereby give consent for my completely anonymized data to be used for the purposes of this study and shared with other researchers.
- No, I do not give consent and I wish to stop with participating in this study.
